BY T. E. POWERS.

supplied with money of war. None has applied for pay at the factories, although some have two weeks' pay coming to them.

The crowds in the streets are sullen and several thousand additional troops were brought in at daylight and housed in barracks. Machine gun batteries were also placed at several points for emergencies.

The terror of the people has been somewhat relieved, but the dread of the next few days continues.

Many foreigners are leaving Russia for abroad. The foreign Embassies are not manifesting alarm. They are expressing confidence that the Government will be able to handle the situation and that there is nothing now warranting apprehension for the lives or safety of their fellow-countrymen.

The authorities insist that the danger of the situation is exaggerated, continuing to scout the idea of a revolution and maintaining the ability of the Government to meet all emergencies.

Traffic between St. Petersburg and Moscow and St. Petersburg and Warsaw is uninterrupted. The Northern Express arrived on schedule time.

The wildest rumors are in circulation. A mob is reported to be marching on Tsarskoe Selo to see the Emperor as the multitude marched to Versailles to ask King Louis XVI. of France for bread in 1789, but the story is utterly without foundation.

In certain quarters where the woes of Russia are always laid to the door of Great Britain, the feeling against the British has become intense, it being charged that the British are furnishing money to bring about a revolution.

RIOTING IN MOSCOW, KOVNO AND VILNA JOIN.

MOSCOW, Jan. 24.—The strike is spreading rapidly. All printing works have been stopped. No newspapers will be issued to-morrow.

Employees of the Bachruskin, Michailoff, Linder and Schrader factories have joined in the strike.

Employees of the tanneries who are out on strike remain quiet. The police have ordered all arms to be removed from the windows of the gunsmiths, a majority of whom have closed their shops.

Thus far there have been no collisions with the police.

The strikers here at noon to-day totalled 10,000.

A body of strikers at noon to-day forced their way into the works of the firm of Hopper and compelled five hundred men to join the strike. Simultaneously factories and other works were closed throughout the districts adjoining Daniloff street.

KOVNO, Russia, Jan. 24.—Work has been stopped at all the factories and railroad shops here.

This city is the capital of a Russian government of that name, having Courland on the northeast, Vilna on the southeast, Russian Poland and Prussia on the north and southwest and with a narrow strip touching the Baltic Sea at Memel. The population of the government is about 1,800,000. Kovno, the capital, which is on the railroad to Berlin, has about 500,000 inhabitants. It is an important entrepot for trade with Prussia and the neighboring provinces of Russia.

VILNA, Russia, Jan. 24.—A strike has been commenced here. The town is quiet.

CRUSH THE REVOLT, VLADIMIR'S COMMAND.

(Copyright, 1905, by the Press Publishing Company, New York World.)

(Special Cable Despatch to The Evening World.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—The Grand Duke Vladimir, the Commander-in-Chief of the troops, speaking of the uprising, is reported as having said at a conference of Grand Dukes and military commanders to-day: "This must be crushed at once. These people must be shown that they are powerless against us."

At the palace of Vladimir a committee is sitting. It is this committee which prepares every report that the Czar is allowed to see. No other reports reach him, and the feeling is growing that the Czar knows absolutely nothing about the extent of Sunday's tragedy.

Two musket factories were attacked last night by the workmen and four hundred rifles secured. The attacking party laid their plans well and there was no interference on the part of the troops. The workmen cut the telephone wires around the factories and tore up the street tram line, so that there could be no communication with the city.

Then they descended on the factories and confiscated every rifle that was in condition for immediate use.

Last night workmen cut the telephone wires to Tsarskoe Selo and a determined force of 40,000 men announced their intention of marching along the Tsarskoe road to St. Petersburg.

The road is heavily planted with troops, including several regiments of artillery, and fire are burning every few yards. Any attempt on the part of the workmen to carry out their threat is bound to result in another massacre.

ALL BETS OFF FOR LOU BETTS

Noted Gambler Gives Up Paraphernalia to District Attorney Jerome and Promises to Be Good for One Year.

"Lou" Betts, a gambler of eminence, who has been conducting a chain of temples of chance in this city for some years, promised the District Attorney to retire to-day. He will close up his places and render unto the District Attorney the paraphernalia appertaining thereto.

Daniel O'Reilly, Betts's counsel, acted as his agent and conductor in the visit he paid to the Criminal Court Building. Being somewhat of a conversationalist, Betts made quite a hit with Mr. Jerome, who talked with him for half an hour. All hands were smiling after the conference.

"Lou" is going to cut it out for the rest of the year, at least," announced Mr. Jerome. "He will give me what furniture of a gambling nature he has left. Already I am in possession of quite a lot of his stuff, which was in storage. He said he would like to preserve that, but I told him a bird in the hand was worth two in the bush, and he was kind enough to agree with me."

Betts, it is reported, will follow the example of other gamblers and leave town until District Attorney Jerome returns from office. There are other places around New York where the rules against running gambling houses are not so strict.

The Fabled Egg of Gold

The man of the nursery-tale who "killed the goose that laid the golden egg," joined a SCHOOL OF PRINCIPLES and an ECONOMIC SYSTEM which have not yet become extinct. He has an occasional follower to-day. These disciples of the "Golden Egg School of Finance" are those who do not use Sunday World Wants. And if the man who killed the goose in order to secure the gold egg was wise, then the man who tries to save the goose is wise. For the two propositions are of exactly the same nature.

"The Golden Egg School of Finance" Victims More Merchants Than Even "Frenzied Finance."

CITY TO BUILD BATH-HOUSES

President Ahearn Contemplates Substituting Floating Structure by Swimming-Pools and Bath in Congested Districts.

It is the policy of the city to eventually do away with all river front floating baths. These are to be replaced by interior baths, serviceable all the year round, and located in such localities as to be most convenient and available to the masses.

So far as Manhattan is concerned, this plan has already been decided upon by the administration. Mayor McClellan himself being wedded to the scheme.

Other boroughs are expected to follow, and Presidents Haffen, Littleton and Cheadley are already declared to be in favor of the project.

It is to Manhattan, however, that the scheme most immediately applies. The project particularly applies to Manhattan, because of the great demand for river front privileges. Space now occupied by floating bath-houses is in great demand during the summer months when bathing houses are privileged to occupy various important places along the North and East rivers.

President Ahearn has in view the building of such bathing places on the lower west and east side as well as in other sections where humanity is huddled. In this connection the use of Commissioner Oakley's proposed auxiliary system is being considered.

DODGE-MORSE CASE BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Charles F. Dodge Expected to Testify To-morrow.

Nearly all of to-day's session of the Grand Jury was devoted to taking evidence in the Dodge-Morse divorce scandal. Charles F. Dodge was eagerly expected to give his testimony to-morrow.

Many bank clerks were examined concerning checks which changed hands during the winding up of the Dodge-Morse complications. There is little doubt that the report of the Grand Jury in the matter will be ready by the end of the week.

CRANE IN COURT FLAYS M'CLUSKY

Magistrate Says 'He Never Heard of Inspector Detecting Anything—Could Rid City of Thieves If He Chose.'

Magistrate Crane, in the Jefferson Market Court, to-day took occasion to express his opinion of Inspector McClusky when Detective-Sergeant Flay arraigned Daniel Contorwitz, who was arrested a few days ago on suspicion of being a pickpocket.

Flay said he could get no evidence which would permit him to swear conscientiously that the man had no visible means of support. A man was called who said he knew the prisoner to be a "gentleman," but the Court did not believe him.

"Of course," said Magistrate Crane, "all these men get others to come to court and say they are their employers, and you officers believe them and stop right there. You could get evidence that these men have no means of support except stealing and then I could send them away, but you don't do it, and I am of your department is a great man."

"By the way, officer, what is the name of the man at the head of the detective bureau?"

"Inspector McClusky," said Flay.

"Well, if you ever heard of his detecting anything," said the Court, "I would like to see him. I think he's the greatest chief New York ever had!" exclaimed Flay, indignantly.

"Give me respects then to the great chief New York has ever had," said the Court, "and tell him for me he can clean out every thief from this city in twenty-four hours, if he wants to."

Detective-Sergeant Flay arraigned four alleged pickpockets but had no evidence to hold them.

"You think I'm a dope," said Magistrate Crane before discharging the prisoners. "So would you and then let you go, but you will discover that before we get through with you we'll find a way to get you out of here."

"Officer, I'm going to send this matter to the Police Commissioner."

ARBITRATION BILL IN STATE SENATE.

World Compel Public Utility Corporations and Employees to Arbitrate.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 24.—A bill to compel arbitration of differences between public utility corporations and employees was offered in the Senate to-day by Senator Lewis.

The bill provides that the Appellate Division is to appoint a commission of three persons who are to have all the powers of a legislative committee. A corporation that refuses to comply with the decision of the commission will lose its franchise, while the employee who declines to abide by the decision will lose his job and will be unable to obtain work from any public service corporation in the State.

DRIVER KILLED IN A COLLISION.

Dominico Giarola Lost His Life and Companions Were Injured—Car Hit a Truck.

In a collision between a truck and a street car at First Avenue and Eighth Street, Mount Vernon, to-day Dominico Giarola, driver of the truck, was thrown to the street and killed. Three other men riding on the truck were slightly injured. A few minutes before this fatal collision there was another between a street car and a truck at Third Avenue and Fourth Street, in which no one was hurt.

SOCIALISTS CALL PEOPLE TO ARMS

Proclamations Denouncing the Czar and Crying for Revolution Freely Circulated in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—The correspondent of The Associated Press noticed several men distributing proclamations to-day. The people formerly were shy of accepting such documents; now they are eagerly accepting them and have nicknamed them latoshchiks ("swallows," an allusion to the spring, which has become a synonym of evolution).

PROCLAMATION TO PEOPLE.

The correspondent secured a number of copies. They are all signed by "The Russian Social Democratic Labor Party." One proclamation dated Jan. 22 reads:

"Comrades—So long as autocracy exists no improvement in our condition is possible. Therefore, we continue to inscribe on our banners the following demands:

"The immediate cessation of the war.

"The summoning of a constituent assembly of representatives of the people elected by universal and equal suffrage and direct, secret ballot.

"The removal of class and race privileges and restrictions.

"The inviolability of the person and domicile.

"Freedom of conscience, speech, the press, meetings, strikes and political associations."

A CALL TO ARMS.

"Citizens, you yesterday witnessed the bestial cruelty of the autocratic Government. You saw blood flowing in the streets. You saw hundreds slaughtered, defenders of the cause of labor. You saw the death and heard the groans of the wounded women and defenseless children. The blood and brains of workmen were spattered around where their heads had been laid.

"Who directed the soldiers to aim their rifles and fire bullets at the breasts of the laborers?

"It was the Emperor, the Grand Dukes, the Ministers, the generals, the nobles of the court. They are the murderers. Slay them.

"To arms, comrades! Lay low the prison walls! Liberate the defenders of freedom! Demolish the police and gendarmes' stations and all the Government and state buildings.

"We must throw down the Emperor and the Government and must have our own government!

"Long live the revolution!

"Long live the constituent assembly of representatives of the people!"

A third proclamation appeals to the people not to attempt to injure private property.

ALDERMEN ACT AHEAD OF COURT

Threatened with Mandamus to Force Action, They Vote Against a Franchise for New Electric Light Company.

Contrary to expectations, the Aldermanic Committee on Water Supply, Gas and Electricity to-day reported adversely on the application of the Manhattan and Bronx Electric Company for a franchise. This move was made under instructions from headquarters, it is said, in order to ward off court proceedings, the company having threatened a mandamus to compel the committee to act.

The application has been pending in the committee since Dec. 20. The Republican members, led by Alderman Franklin B. Ware, who introduced the application, have fought at each meet-

JAPANESE ATTACK AND ROUT RUSSIANS.

TOKIO, Jan. 24.—The Japanese headquarters at Sien-Chang, Manchuria, reports that a Japanese force dislodged about one company of Russian cavalry northwest of Weisauku on Monday, occupying the position and capturing some horses and arms.

Another Japanese detachment routed a force of Russians in the neighborhood of Changchung inflicting over twenty casualties. The Japanese also captured five officers and men, with their horses and arms.

O'BRIEN WILLING TO BET $5,000

Philadelphia Pugilist Wires The Evening World To-Day that He Is Ready to Fight Fitzsimmons for Big Side Bet.

Jack O'Brien telegraphed The Evening World from Philadelphia to-day that he is ready and willing to meet Bob Fitzsimmons, and that there will be no trouble to arrange a fight.

"Fitz can have his side bet as soon as he likes," wires O'Brien. "I am ready at any time."

This despatch from O'Brien would seem to clinch the match between himself and Fitzsimmons. The latter has expressed himself as ready for a fight with O'Brien, but ventured the opinion that the Philadelphia pugilist would not come up with a side bet. O'Brien's announcement to The Evening World removes every obstacle to such a fight.

GOV. LA FOLLETTE ELECTED SENATOR.

Both Houses of the Wisconsin Legislature Vote for Him To-Day.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 24.—Both houses of the Wisconsin Legislature at noon to-day voted separately for United States Senator, Gov. La Follette being named.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 24.—In joint session to-day Thomas C. Niedringhaus, Republican caucus nominee for United States Senator, lost three votes, which Keene gained. The ballot stood: Niedringhaus, 78; Keene, 81; Keene, 81; Keene, 81. Eighty-one votes are necessary to election.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 24.—The two Houses of the New Jersey Legislature voted separately to-day for United States Senator. John Keane, who was nominated by the Republican caucus to succeed himself, received a majority of the votes and will be formally elected to the Senate at a joint session to-morrow. Col. Edwin A. Stevens, of Hudson county, was voted for by the Democrats.

BRYAN MAKES PLEA FOR BENNETT WILL.

He Argues Eloquent Before the Connecticut Supreme Court in the Famous Contest.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 24.—Arguments were heard in the Connecticut Supreme Court to-day on the appeal of William J. Bryan from the decision of the Superior Court denying him authority to receive $50,000 mentioned in the sealed letter left by the late Philo S. Bennett, of whose estate Mr. Bryan is executor. In the expectation that Mr. Bryan would assert personally in the arguments the court-room was crowded with attorneys and political friends of Mr. Bryan.

Mr. Bryan spoke for more than an hour, discussing the intricate technical points involved, and was followed by former Judge Henry Stoddard, counsel for the residuary legatees.

Mr. Bryan then spoke for three-quarters of an hour, and so eloquent was he that the judges sat down their law books and lawyers provided for him to listen. He said it was due him in this case to say a few words as to the intent of the testator. This intent, he thought, was very plain, and he hoped the Court would be explicit as to whether the sealed letter could be received as a declaration of trust, even if not a part of the will. He said that most wills contained turned on two or three questions—usually on the capacity of a testator to make a will, on the question of undue influence, and on the fact that Mr. Bennett traveled 1,500 miles to Nebraska, carrying with him a will to be used as a mode of attack, and followed by 1,500 miles back to New York, where he duly executed the will. The question, therefore, he said, turns on the intent of the testator.

SLOCUM LIFE-BELTS ROTTEN Worn Out? Run Down?

Many Witnesses Testify at Trial of Accused Inspectors that Life-Preservers Fell Apart When Touched.

Thomas H. Free, for twenty-three years a member of the Fire Department, and a former Fire Marshal, was the first witness to-day at the trial of former Assistant United States Inspectors Henry Landberg and John W. Fleming before Judge Thomas and a jury in the criminal branch of the United States Circuit Court.

Free said that he made an examination of the wreck of the General Slocum just after the burning. He said he noticed that the life-preservers on the North Brother Island beach were broken and the granulated cork which they had been filled was floating on the water.

"Did you see the body of a drowned woman with a life-preserver on?" asked Mr. Baldwin, the prosecuting counsel.

Mr. Free said he did. He identified a life-preserver as the one she had on. It had a hole in it and the canvas, he said, was rotten and tore easily.

Samuel H. Berg, an employee of the Board of Health, who was a volunteer life-saver on the day of the disaster, told of the rescue he made. In answer to Gen. Bennett's question he told of finding the body of a woman with a life-preserver properly attached, about three feet below the surface, near the shore. He saw granulated cork floating about on the water near the scene of the disaster.

Paul Liebenau, a bartender, who was one of a family party of eleven on the Slocum, told how six of the party lost their lives. He tried to get down five or six life-preservers on the promenade deck forward, but could not because of the rough sea. The cork of them, he said, "broke off like soda crackers."

Adolph Heuer, a boy, said he was on the promenade deck with his mother, brothers and sisters when the fire was discovered.

"I ran aft and got on a camp chair," said the boy, "and tried to get the life-preservers down. I tried to pull down about twenty of them, but only got one down. The others fell apart. The cork tore from them and the granulated cork fell over me. My mother, brothers and sisters—six in all—were lost."

More testimony as to the uselessness of the life-preservers was given by Edwin Matzger, a boy. He said that three life-preservers out of five pulled down from the rack on the main deck were found to be rotten. He said that he succeeded in breaking loose one of the wires, and out of the fifteen life-preservers that fell down but one was saved. He said that the cork of the life-preservers that fell down but one was saved. He said that the cork of the life-preservers that fell down but one was saved.
